

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Publication

April 18, 2006

San Francisco, California

1890 Bryant Street Studios
First Annual Spring Open Studios
Featuring 30+ professional artists and artisans

May 19, 7 - 9 p.m., Opening Reception
May 20 - 21, 11 a.m. - 6 p.m., Open Studios

1890 Bryant Street Studios is a vibrant new center for fine art and craft, located in the historic Best Foods building on the corner of Bryant and Mariposa Streets in the Mission District. This landmark building is home to creative businesses, such as vintners, designers, a bakery, a café, HO scale car-racing enthusiasts, architects, painters, jewelers, printmakers, photographers, and ceramicists.

Biographies and examples of exhibiting artists and participants work can be viewed on the group website www.1890bryant.com or for more information please contact Linda Saytes (linda@saytes.com) or 415-824-5756.

As a related event to Open Studios, the Arc Café, located at the corner of Mariposa and Florida Streets, will host a group show from May 5th through June 1st.

In addition to exhibitions, other events throughout the year will include lectures, workshops, and performances.

Street parking is plentiful in the evening and on weekends.

www.1890bryant.com